PRESS RELEASE

TRIAD ADVISORS SEES RECORD GROWTH

Atlanta, March 27, 2008 – Triad Advisors is pleased to announce record revenue growth for the year ended December 31, 2007. Triad Advisors posted total revenue of over $59 million, a 52% jump from the previous year.

“I feel this growth is a reflection of our ongoing commitment to provide our advisors with a strategic, long-term broker/dealer partnership,” said Mark Mettelman, President and CEO of Triad Advisors. “We feel that the need for unbiased, customized wealth planning is greater than ever and our goal is to provide the platform and solutions to help our advisors meet the ever-changing needs of their clients.”

All sources of business were up sharply, including fee-based revenue which saw an increase of 68%. Total recurring revenue for the firm, which includes advisory fees, mutual fund trails, and insurance renewals, reached nearly 55% of total revenue.
