

TRIAD EMPLOYEES SELECTED TO FSI COMMITTEES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Atlanta, GEORGIA. December 17, 2007 – Triad Advisors is pleased to announce the recent appointments of Jeff Rosenthal and Harry Chaffee to the advisory council of the Financial Services Institute, Inc (FSI).

Mr. Rosenthal, Vice President of Sales and Marketing, was selected to the Marketing & Investment Advisory Council while Mr. Chaffee, Vice President of Compliance, was selected to the Compliance Council. These Councils will meet throughout the year to discuss key issues affecting the state of the independent financial services industry. They will serve as a collective voice in making recommendations to the FSI board and its membership.

“I look forward to participating in FSI’s Marketing and Advisory Services Council,” stated Mr. Rosenthal, “During my 15 years in the independent contractor financial services industry, we have needed a cohesive voice to carry our message to our elected officials and regulators. I am honored to have been selected to participate in the Council.”

The Financial Services Institute (FSI) was formed in January 2004 as an advocacy and membership organization for independent broker-dealers and independent financial advisors. FSI has 105 member firms (102 Broker-Dealer members and 3 Consultant members) with more than 128,000 independent registered representatives. FSI provides insight, information and involvement to provide visibility, credibility, and an improved regulatory environment for the independent channel.

Triad Advisors is a privately-owned independent broker/dealer and Registered Investment Advisor based in Atlanta. Triad offers a broad menu of products, services and total wealth management solutions to over 350 independent financial advisors located throughout the country.
